

WOMEN'S DUKE STUDIES

Graduate Certificate in Feminist Studies Worksheet

Name _____ Home Dept/Institution (if not Duke) _____

Date of Enrollment for Feminist Certificate _____ Expected grad date _____

Course Number and Name/Instructor <small>NOTE: For cross-listed courses, include the number you registered under AND the WST number</small>	Semester Completed	Notes
Required Course
WST 701S (220) Foundations in Feminist Theory
Two Courses in Women's Studies at Duke (see #2 below)
One Elective (from Women's Studies, or offered by another academic unit; see # 3 below )

DGS sign-off on all coursework _____

Requirements for students enrolled in the Certificate in Feminist Studies: [Note: Audited courses do not count toward the certificate; nor does previously taken MA coursework at Duke or elsewhere.]

1. One required course: WST 701S (220) Foundations in Feminist Theory
2. Two additional (600-level or above) graduate courses in or cross-listed with Women's Studies at Duke. Tutorials do not fulfill this requirement.
3. Either a fourth graduate-level course or tutorial (500 or above) offered by Women's Studies or another academic unit focusing on women, gender or an intersectional approach to the study of race and/or sexuality (courses must be approved by the DGS).

Women, gender, sexuality, or feminism must be a significant aspect of the preliminary examination or dissertation project.

DGS sign-off _____

A member of the Women's Studies Core, Secondary, or Graduate Faculty (see website for list of approved faculty) must be on the preliminary examination and dissertation committees.

Please attach the Dissertation title w/brief description (include committee members):